MEDICAL MALPRACTICE NEWS.

As some of you may know, Jed Kurzban has a practice in Hawaii as well as in Miami.

These are the four elements we look for in a medical negligence claim in the state of Hawaii.

1. Existence of legal duty
2. Breach of duty
3. Connection between the breach and the injury
4. Measurable harm from the injury or illness.

Jed Kurzban and Lauren Gallagher have won yet another automobile case for the plaintiff. As always, we are happy to bring peace and justice back to our clients.

If you have any questions, or know of someone who might need our services, please call us at 1-866-377-3676

IMMIGRATION NEWS.

- This month, Ira J. Kurzban was nominated in the American Immigration Lawyers Association Annual Awards for the Founder Award!
- The Florida Bar wants it to be known that John Pratt has met the Standards of Certification and is a Board Certified Specialist in Immigration and Nationality Law and is granted the rights and privileges appertaining to such certification until May 1st 2025. Congratulations John!

BLOG.

Stay safe with knowledge of Florida's texting and driving laws

Florida has considered texting and driving a primary offense since 2019. Law enforcement can stop you for cell phone use as a motorist and issue a ticket even without another driving infraction.
